SCORING

- Prior to each match, each player must choose which tees to play from
 - Players must play from the white or blue tees
 - Players may play from different tee boxes
- To determine the course handicap differential between the two players, use the handicap calculator in the GHIN app
 - The player with the higher handicap will receive strokes starting on the top X hardest handicap holes where X is the course handicap differential
 - The maximum course handicap allowed will be 18 (equates to a ~22 handicap from the whites or a ~20 handicap from the blues)
 - For example, a player with a 22 course handicap will be assigned an 18 course handicap for this tournament. The handicap differential will be calculated as 18 minus the course handicap of the opponent.
- All match outcomes will be submitted via the Golf Genius app
- All questions or concerns can be directed to jpmgc@jpmgc.net
